

Mature's Tour

Discover coastal beauty, gourmet delights, world-class wines and friendly locals when you take a mini break to the Matakana Coast. Spend a restful few days exploring and learning about New Zealand small town history - perfect for kiwis wanting to explore more of the country and international visitors alike.

- Five days of scenery, culture, history, delicious food & art
- Accommodation at beautiful Warkworth Lodge included
- Relaxed pace so you can soak everything up

Tour Highlights

- Day One - Enjoy a visit to the Kauri Museum before driving to Waipu and taking the 'scenic' route back via Langs Beach and Mangawhai. Indulge in a chocolate tasting & tour at Bennetts Chocolates before dinner at the lodge in the evening.
- Day Two - Discover Goat Island with a visit to the marine laboratory and a trip on the glass bottom boat. In the afternoon, stroll charming Matakana Village before dinner in the early evening.
- Day Three - Historic Puhoi beckons with a visit to the famous cheese factory. Enjoy a tour and a tasting before strolling the village. The picturesque Sullivans Bay is perfect for a photo stop, and we visit the sculpture trail and stop for a honey tasting in the afternoon.
- Day Four - Savor the world class wines of the Matakana region with a boutique wine tour. Lunch amongst the vines with an antipasto platter and enjoy a wine tasting. Add on an optional oyster farm tour.
- Day Five - Visit stunning Omaio garden and enjoy morning tea with green finger & creator, Liz Morrow. Afterwards, stop in at Morris & James pottery factory then soak up the coastal views over lunch at Snells Beach. In the afternoon, stroll the stunning Brick Bay sculpture trail before transferring to the airport.
- Enjoy a number of options for evening meals - the local RSA is a short stroll away; and dinnertime dining is sometimes available at the lodge. Accommodation is located in the beautiful Warkworth Village with walks, a historic trail sailings on the Jane Gifford & boutique stores to enjoy.
